

IMAGINING AMERICA
artists + scholars in public life

GRADUATE PUBLIC SCHOLARS AT THE CENTER

A CONVERSATION ON CULTURE CHANGE

NAVIGATING GRADUATE SCHOOL AS A PUBLIC SCHOLAR WHILE BUILDING SUPPORTIVE STRUCTURES AND CULTURE

ALANA HAYNES STEIN &
LIZBETH DE LA CRUZ SANTANA

We will share findings from research conducted with graduate public scholars at UC Davis as part of Imagining America's Mellon-funded action research project. In the workshop we will coordinate collaborative thinking on how graduate school can be navigated and reimaged to create an environment where public scholars can thrive.

If you identify as a graduate public scholar, activist, or community-engaged researcher, then this workshop is for you!

WEDNESDAY

03.15.2023

2:00–3:30 PM

Andrews Conference Room
2203 Social Sciences &
Humanities Building

